Release from a Course

$500. This fee is charged once a CoE has been issued, regardless of circumstances and timing of cancellation. The only exception to this fee is for VISA refusal, which is covered under legislation.

Note: Applicants must advise Health Institute Australasia in writing of their intention to withdraw from a course.

All outstanding fees must be settled before letter of release will be issued.

NOTE: If a learner does not communicate with HIA, in a timely manner (before the due date) regarding late homework or late payments, they risk being entered as withdrawn from the course, past their course end date. As some of the courses are assessed holistically, neither can there be any statement of attainment issued in lieu of the qualification.
